Policy Number: Refer to the UTHealth Handbook of Operating Procedures Policy Number 186 – Student Conduct and Discipline

Subject/Title: Student Conduct and Discipline

Policy Statement: Students are charged with knowledge of and compliance with all University regulations concerning student conduct and discipline as set forth in the HOOP.

The University has adopted policies regarding misconduct in school-related scholastic and/or research activities, whether on- or off-campus. Cheating, plagiarism, or dishonesty in any scholastic activity is a serious breach of ethical standards and is grounds for disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal from the School. Responsibility and authority for investigating allegations of misconduct and enacting disciplinary measures lies with the Office of Academic Affairs and Student Services, subject to appropriate review by the Dean, whose decision is final. Students are expected to sign a pledge adhering to the honor code during New Student Orientation.
