Houston Global Health Collaborative
Annual Impact Global Health Conference
Spring 2019
Rice BioScience Research Collaborative (BRC), 6500 Main Street, Houston TX 77005
This is a gathering of interdisciplinary health professionals in the greater Houston and Gulf Coast areas who are concerned about, and working in, the exciting field of Global Health. Students and professionals come from multiple institutions throughout the Houston and Gulf Coast areas, and practice disciplines ranging from public health and medicine, to nursing, dentistry and pharmacy. The goal is to bring all parties together to network and share information, in order to increase collaboration and maximize efforts and information sharing about Global Health.

Palmer Beasley M.D. Travel Award in International Research
For continuing SPH students working on important public health issues in a developing country of Asia, Africa or Latin America. Funds can also be used to support travel costs of graduate students, post-doctoral students or junior faculty from developing countries to come to the U.S. to work with SPH Application forms for this annual scholarship are available in February and applications are due in March. For the application form, see the UTSPH Scholarships website.

Please refer to the UTHealth SPH Practicum site for requirements regarding the practicum experience and for more available opportunities.

Fogarty International Center
Advancing Science for Global Health
Directory of Non-NIH Funding Opportunities for predoctoral/graduate students, postdoctoral students, faculty, health professionals, institutions, and travel.
This directory of Non-NIH Funding Opportunities includes a variety of international grants and fellowships in biomedical and behavioral research for graduate students, postdoctoral students, faculty, and for travel. Its goal is to provide information about additional funding opportunities available to those in the field of global health research. The directory is maintained by the Fogarty International Center, the international component of the U.S. National Institutes of Health (NIH).

Albert Schweitzer Fellowship: http://www.schweitzerfellowship.org/
The Albert Schweitzer Fellowship (ASF)’s mission is to develop Leaders in Service: individuals who are dedicated and skilled in meeting the health needs of underserved communities, and whose example influences and inspires others.

ASPPH Fellowship Programs: https://fellowships.aspph.org/

The Unreasonable Institute: http://unreasonableinstitute.org/
“We attract the world’s most brilliant and promising entrepreneurs who are dedicated to having a globally significant social or environmental impact with their ventures. Through an intensive application process, these early-stage entrepreneurs are chosen to become Unreasonable Fellows and attend the Unreasonable Institute. Additionally, we attract serial entrepreneurs, globally recognized thought leaders and innovators, and leading investors to mentor our Fellows. These Unreasonable Mentors become the crux of our model throughout the Institute.”

A Kopernik fellowship provides a unique opportunity for entrepreneurial individuals of the highest caliber and potential to work with our partner NGOs and assist with the implementation and monitoring of projects disseminating appropriate technology.
