

Carlos Breeden

Plant Manager, Commercial Metals Company Recycling Houston

Carlos Breeden joined CMC in December 2007 through the Management Training Program at CMC's Corporate Office in Irving, TX. In 2008, he was promoted to Non-ferrous Trader selling hand cleanable grades for all of CMC's recycling locations. In 2009, he accepted the position of Assistant Plant Manager/Operations Manager at CMC Recycling in Chattanooga, TN. In 2012, Carlos moved back to Texas accepting a promotion as Plant Manager at CMC Recycling in Beaumont, TX. Most recently, Carlos was named Plant Manager at CMC Recycling in Houston, TX in July, 2013. He joined the Recycling Council of Texas (RCOT) as a Board Member in 2014. He started in the metals industry in 1996 at Southern Metals Company in Dallas, TX where he worked as an account manager through 2002. Prior to joining CMC, Carlos was self-employed in the auto-wholesale industry for five years. He is a graduate of Texas A&M University with a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology.