

Kulsum Lopez

Graduate Engineer, Bureau of Pollution Control and Prevention, Houston Health Department

Kulsum Lopez currently serves as an engineer at the City of Houston. She has over 4 years of experience in process engineering, regulatory compliance, risk & quality management, data analytics, technology solutions, project cost control/scheduling, and process improvement. She obtained a passing score on the Professional Engineer (P.E.) exam taken in October 2017 with licensure expected by July 2018. She holds a BS in Mechanical Engineering degree from University of Texas at Tyler with high honors and BS in Health degree from University of Houston with highest honors.