

DeeP Fire

Deer Park Chemical Fire Study

Questions?
DeePFire@uth.tmc.edu

Or Call:

Michelle McDaniel, BS, CHES
SWCOEH Outreach Coordinator
713.500.9447

The Southwest Center for Occupational and Environmental Health (SWCOEH) is a
CDC/NIOSH-funded Education and Research Center (ERC)
"T42OH008421."

www.swcoeh.org

Participate in Disaster Research!

Volunteers needed to help with study on impact of Deer Park chemical fire (DeeP Fire) on air quality and health

Sign up to Volunteer at:
<http://bit.ly/deepfire3v>

What does volunteering involve?

- Conducting interviews of residents in Deer Park and Jacinto City;
- Administering resident questionnaires;
- Setting up air monitoring equipment.

Volunteer requirements:

- Must have current CITI Human Subject Protection Training or be able to complete/refresh training in 48 hours;
- Must be able to commute to UTHealth School of Public Health Houston campus for trainings and field work in Deer Park and Jacinto City;
- Attendance at scheduled trainings and field work;
- Follow research and training protocol approved by researchers and UTHealth IRB.