

Southwest Center for Occupational and Environmental Health traineeships

Funding: CDC National Institute for Occupational Health and Safety

Occupational Epidemiology

Director: Dr. David Gimeno

- Focus: epidemiologic methods to studying work-related exposures, diseases and injuries.
- Degree: PhD in Epidemiology
 - Major: Epidemiology
 - Minor: Biostatistics
 - Breadth: Occupational Health

Total Worker Health

Director: Dr. Susie Day

- Focus: policies, programs & practices integrating work safety & health hazards with injury & illness prevent.
- Degree: PhD in Environ. Sciences
 - Major: Environmental Sciences
 - Minor: Health Promot. & Beh. Science
 - Breadth: Worker-centered Well-being

Traineeship Benefits

- Mentoring by an expert academic advisor
- Participate in SWCOEH sponsored activities
- Cubicle space & desktop computer
- Annual $24,324 full-time stipend & tuition/fees
- Health insurance
- $1,800 annual travel funds for meetings
- Internship opportunities
- Additional half-time student employment possible