Authorship, Publication Plan and Data Ownership

Please discuss each item with your committee and summarize your responses on this form.

1. Who is the owner of the data that will be used for the CE/thesis/dissertation?

2. Do you plan to publish the results of your CE/thesis/dissertation? Yes / No
   If yes, please describe the publication plan:

3. If co-authorship is appropriate, how will the order of authors be determined? (Pay special attention to first and senior author positions, and the norms for the journal(s) to which you intend to submit your papers.)

4. What is the expected timeframe for the publication of results?

5. If the student or faculty member chooses not to publish, or cannot publish the results within above timeframe, what alternative plans have been made for publication?

We, the undersigned, have discussed all points above, and understand all summaries made on this document. This information is to be used as a planning tool only, and is not intended as a binding agreement. Subsequent changes to this understanding will be discussed as needed.
